

Judge,

in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York. One Bowling Green New York, NY 10004-1408

Dear Judge Glenn

My name is Dimo Strahilov Ganovski and I hold multiple claims,I don't know if I mistakenly placed in convenience class or other errors?
I'm an Earn customer and I voted the Plan not for convenience class because my 2 claims are above 5000$.

All communication to Celsius have gone unanswered with the exception of a standard blanket style email I received from them asking me to read a few docket filings.

These filings do not address my mistakenly being classified to receive roughly 11% for my 2 claims of what I had on file.I vote for General Earn Plan and I must recover about 30% for my claims.

The Claims Distribution process seems to have been an utter failure.
Bankruptcy is certainly not a new thing, nor is cryptocurrency, nor (presumably) is a claims distribution process generally, but somehow, millions of dollars in preparation for the eventual distribution of funds to creditors, we have been left with nothing other than a stark example of sheer incompetence.

Best Regards

Dimo Strahilov Ganovski
